

Investment Objective

Globe value portfolio aims at investing in stocks that have good value & future growth prospects, can benefit from earnings growth, re-rating of business or sector and changes in macro & micro fundamentals.

It is a multicap strategy with active management and use of various derivatives like future & options on the underlying / index with a view to optimize the yield of the portfolio. The strategy also identifies various special situations in the market and tries to profit from them using a strategy which is market neutral.

Investment Strategy

- Picking stocks that have good value, can benefit from growth in earnings, re-rating of business or changes in company's fundamentals.
- Identify & invest in candidates available at an attractive price, having potential for substantial appreciation.
- Focus on positive changes in the business environment of particular sector/company. Enter at right opportune time and exit when potential is realized.
- Derivatives may be considered to generate alpha by using stock option strategies or stock futures. Index future/ option strategies are used to guard the portfolio holdings against systematic risk.
- Benefit from event arbitrage and other special situations involving Merger & Acquisitions, Open Offers, Takeover, De-listing etc.
